Rental Income Guidelines

Subject Rental	50% of the verifiable rental income
Existing / Other Rental Properties (Rental income from any rental property other than the subject property)	The lender may use a net rent worksheet. Visit the Broker Resource Centre for a copy of the rental worksheet. For Non-Subject Rentals with multiple owners who are not on the subject application: Only a portion of the rental income can be used, while 100% of the liabilities are factored into our rental worksheet calculations. (ie. If there are 2 owners and only 1 is on the subject application, then only 50% of gross rents and 100% of liabilities factored into the rental worksheet).
Rental Suite / Basement Income	50% of gross rents. "Roommate"/"mother in-law" suite income is not permitted. 100% is allowable Subject to insurer criteria. Fire retrofit and legal non-conforming status required where applicable.
Documentation Requirements	Current rental lease agreement (when available); OR Market rents via letter of economic rents from a Attain Mortgage approved appraiser (only if lease agreement not available); OR; Recent T1 General with the T776 Statement of Real Estate Rentals confirming gross rents.
